STAMPEDE

The year of the New Gym . . . brought a new superintendent. To many he was an old friend; had taught their brothers and sisters Social Studies. Long-time resident and businessman, pinch-hitter as coach and woodshop teacher during war time, Mr. Powell knows the student's point of view; he is making democracy work. The Student Body enjoys freedom of assembly.

FINAL SAYINGS

Yes Sir, Spike!
That's for sure!
Now in Cabazon . . .
One of these ~~first days~~ . . .
Here we go again!
You betcha!
When I get to San Diego?
Who's always lost?
Oh, how hideous!
Gad!
Use your head, man!
I didn't do it, Love did.
When I was down at Agnes'
Leo came up tonight.
Hi-'Ya-all!
When Eddie comes home on leave . . .
What?
Oh! Golly!
Anything I think of.
Please, Bill!
Why for?
Oh Fudge!
What Cha Talkin' 'bout?
What do you think I am, Anyhow?
What Happened, John?
Watch it Sam!
You Know it!
I think you're kiddin' me.
That's great!
Hmmmmm!
Knock it off!
Sammy.
Hey, Coach!
How you was?
What say?
Oh, no!
You just don't look right!
It's my locker, Mrs. Wood, not hers.
Oh, my achin' Aunt Suzie!
Oh, darn!
I'll dance at your wedding.
Think we should indulge boys?
Don't know.
Oh, no!
Let's have a party.
How you was?
You wanna bet?
You just don't look quite right to me!
But I don't want to, Frank.
Take it easy.
Silly!
Let's take it off!
Well I'll be darned.

Really?
I'm not about to —
I got news for you.
Don't ask me.
Really!
Golly, I don't know
Cute guys I saw last night, Jo!
Excuse you!
Watch it, Sam!
Get it down to Hal's.
Such is life!
My nose!
Oh, shucks, that's nothin'!
